History of Medicine Section

Wednesday 6th May 2015 at 4pm,
Winter Hall, RCPI, 6 Kildare St, Dublin.

William Wilde Bi-Centenary Symposium

William Wilde in the West of Ireland
Davis Coakley, Royal Academy of Medicine in Ireland

‘By this disease people are rendered unable to earn their living’
William Wilde, Oculist to Her Majesty
Susan Mullaney, Royal Academy of Medicine in Ireland

William Wilde and 1 Merrion Square
Rory McEntegart, Academic Dean, American College, Dublin

Sir William Wilde’s Contribution to Otology
Michael Walsh, William Wilde Chair in E.N.T. Surgery, RCSI

The Demographic Work of Sir William Wilde
Sir Peter Froggatt, Queens University, Belfast

Sir William Wilde, an Enlightened Editor
Mary O’Doherty, RCSI Heritage Collections Librarian

Sir William Wilde: Social Historian
Laurence Geary, University College Cork

Wilde’s Worlds: Sir William Wilde in Victorian Ireland
James McGeachie, Ulster University

Tours of Number 1 Merrion Square will be available on the day, starting at 2pm, please meet at the front door of Number 1.

Chair: Clive Lee, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland

Kindly supported by Scope Ophthalmics and Pamex