

The Edward Worth Library 2019 Seminar Series

Unless otherwise stated, all lectures take place in the

Worth Library at 3.00pm.

27 March 2019: Professor William Mc Cormack (Worth Librarian emeritus): 'Ambrose Charpentier (1861-1945), Roger Casement's GP Doctor.' This is the Worth Library's Grizelda Steevens Memorial Lecture.

4 April 2019: Dr James Palmer (Reader in Medieval History at the University of St Andrews): 'Charlemagne's sciences and the framing of Carolingian religion (757-818'. Please note that this is the joint TCD-Worth Lecture in Medieval and Renaissance Science and Medicine and will take place at 5.15pm in 7-9 South Leinster Street, Dublin 2.

22 May 2019: Dr Catherine Cox (Director for the Centre for the History of Medicine, UCD): 'Visualising the Pauper Patient in Nineteenth-Century Ireland.' This lecture is a joint initiative of the Edward Worth Library and the Dr Steevens' Hospital Library.

17 June 2019: Dr Cathy Scuffil (Dublin City Historian in Residence): 'One City: Four Maps'.

27 September 2019: Dr Georgina Hedesan (University of Oxford): 'Alchemy in the Eighteenth Century: Johann Heinrich Cohausen's Defence of Van Helmont and His Alkahest in Helmontius Ecstaticus (1731)'.

1 November 2019: Professor Robin Lane-Fox (University of Oxford Fellow Emeritus): 'Plants and Planning, 1580-1680'. This lecture will take place at 4.00pm in the Boardroom of Dr Steevens' Hospital, Dublin 8. Please note that booking is essential for this lecture. To book please e-mail Elizabethanne.boran@hse.ie no later than 20 October 2019. Bookings will be confirmed by a return e-mail.